Go Play Sports Tours/NFHCA High School All-American Teams Announced

GILBERT, Ariz. – Forty-eight honorees have been selected to the Go Play Sports Tours/National Field Hockey Coaches Association (NFHCA) High School All-American Teams, as announced on Monday.

Each of the 10 regions were represented with at least one player on the All-American Teams. Pennsylvania led all regions with 11 selections to the All-American Teams, while New Jersey followed with nine. New York and the South Regions notched five selections apiece while Massachusetts and the Midwest Regions each totaled four. The Mid-Atlantic, West and Northern New England Regions had three selections each while Southern New England notched one.

Fourteen players made the All-American Team after also being selected to the squad in 2016. Sky Caron and Ali McCarthy were each selected to the first team for the third year in a row, while Gabby Andretta also made the All-American squad for the third straight season. Greer Gill, Caroline Hanan, Katie Jean and Josie Varney were repeat first-team selections.

GoPlay Sports Tours, a division of ACIS Educational Tours, takes teams, players and coaches all over the world to help them train, develop and grow. Our programs are designed to help teams evolve and grow, on and off the field. We handle all the logistics, insurance, and financial details so coaches and players can focus on sports. Our commitment to customer service give us the capacity to customize every tour we offer to the individual needs of every client with whom we work.
